Re: United States v. Reza Zarrab, a/k/a "Riza Sirraf," S2 15 Cr. 867 (RMB)

Dear Judge Berman:

The Government respectfully submits this letter to advise the Court of potential conflicts of interest presented by the representation of the defendant, Reza Zarrab, by the law firms Greenberg Traurig LLP ("Greenberg Traurig") and Debevoise & Plimpton LLP ("Debevoise"), and to request that the Court hold a hearing pursuant to United States v. Curcio, 680 F.2d 881 (2d Cir. 1982).

On Friday, February 24, 2017, the Government was advised that Zarrab has retained two additional attorneys, Rudolph W. Giuliani of Greenberg Traurig and Michael B. Mukasey of Debevoise, to represent him in connection with this matter. The Government has since determined that Greenberg Traurig and Debevoise each also represents least some of the bank victims in this action.¹

As the Court is aware, the Government's prosecution theory is that Reza Zarrab and his co-conspirators operated a network of overseas businesses to engage in prohibited financial transactions with Iranian entities. Through various deceptive acts, including layering the transactions and omitting information concerning the Iranian nexus, Zarrab and his co-conspirators allegedly tricked numerous U.S. financial institutions into processing barred transactions, thus exposing them to significant potential loss. Publicly available materials indicate that a number of the banks allegedly defrauded by Zarrab and his co-conspirators are current or former clients of Greenberg Traurig and Debevoise.²

² The victim banks that are either current or former clients of Greenberg Traurig or Debevoise include Deutsche Bank, Bank of America, JP Morgan Chase, Citibank, HSBC, Standard
