

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Case No.: 1:19-CR-00018-ABJ

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

ROGER J. STONE, JR.,

Defendant.

DEFENDANT ROGER STONE'S MOTION TO SUPPRESS

Defendant ROGER STONE, files this motion to suppress all evidence as fruit of illegal search warrants executed on specified dates and times. The warrants and applications are filed under seal.

BACKGROUND

The Government stated in its Opposition to Stone's Motion to Dismiss (Dkt # 99) that it will not be required to prove that the Russians hacked either the Democratic National Committee ("DNC") or Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") from outside their physical premises or that the Russians were responsible for delivering the data to WikiLeaks. These assumptions formed the inadequate basis for the search warrants conducted in this case and the Indictment of Defendant. In addition to the fundamental assumptions, the government designated Roger Stone's case as related to United States v. Netyksho et. al. No. 18-cr-215 (ABJ) and cites to this Indictment in certain search warrant applications. (See e.g. Exhibit, Google search warrant application at 6, ¶18). If these premises are not the foundation for probable cause, Roger Stone communicating with a Twitter user named "Guccifer 2.0" or
