11/05/2021		MINUTE ORDER as to DANIEL RODRIGUEZ. In connection with defendant's pending motion to suppress statements 38 , the government is ORDERED to advise the Court by November 10, 2021 whether there is any video recording of the March 31, 2021 FBI interview of defendant, and if there is, to provide a copy of the video to the Court by that date, either on a thumb drive or disc delivered to the deputy courtroom clerk or via the USAfx drop box. It is FURTHER ORDERED that the defense must file a notice by November 10, 2021 clarifying what it meant on page 2 of the motion to suppress when it stated, "[o]fficers broke into Mr. Rodriguez's home during the early hours of the morning to execute his arrest," and added in footnote 2: "Undersigned counsel obtained information underlying the arrest during the course of investigation. The facts included here will be developed at the evidentiary hearing." Defendant has moved to suppress the interview on the grounds that it was obtained in violation of Miranda and that it was not voluntary; if there is some other basis for the relief sought based on "information underlying the arrest" or the circumstances of the arrest, that needs to be made clear, and the supporting legal authority needs to be provided.
